The excerpt below is from "Rwanda and Genocide in the Twentieth Century" by Alan Destexhe.

Some Hutu discovered the extent to which they, the "native" people of the region, had been "despoiled" and developed their own theory of the "Ethiopian invaders," categorizing the Tutsi as colonizers, the same as the Belgians. Rwanda Tutsis were from now on treated as immigrants and the 1959 "revolutionaries" called for "the return to Ethiopia of the Tutsi colonizers." The Hutu had begun to believe that they alone were the native people of Rwanda.

Based on the excerpt, what does the author believe caused the genocide in Rwanda?

- A. extreme nationalism of the Hutus
- B. economic hardships of the Tutsis
- C. attempt to expel Ethiopian invaders by the Tutsis
- D. empowerment of the Hutus by the Belgian imperialists
